

The Ultimate Director

Better than the best

Top management development

---

The Ultimate Director programme has been created to support directors and senior managers in organisations both large and small. It is based around the think tank concept and helps individual senior people to improve themselves and their organisation.

The Executive Day

Peer roundtable sessions every other month, professionally facilitated; share and get unbiased advice from successful directors.

Networking

Confidential and trusted access to a network of like minded top leaders; this leads to individual or group cooperation.

The Speakers

Interactive presentations by top speakers, focused on the personal and business side of leadership.

The Executive Coaching

Monthly one-to-one executive coaching sessions. An opportunity to reflect and ask yourself those questions that you would not normally have the chance to ask yourself.

Who will you meet at The Ultimate Director?

This programme is delivered by experienced professionals who have spent a lifetime at high level in companies. All have exceptional experience in developing organisations at a strategic and tactical level.

All the people you will meet on the programme will be top leaders of non-competing organisations within a specific geographical area.

- Board Directors
- Managing Directors
- Senior Managers

of owner manager, corporate, not for profit or government / local authority organisations.

The Ultimate Director Programme will:

---

- Develop you and help you take your business to the next level
- Help you to understand what will make your business more successful
- Enable you to question, in a confidential and non-judgmental environment, your ideas and goals
- Expose you to advice from active high level directors and managers focused directly at you and your organisation
- Develop you as an Ultimate Director
- Give you exclusive insight into local and national businesses

Programme Benefits, Objectives and Outcomes:

Client Feedback

---

“The programme was excellent providing a conduit to enable divisional directors to deliver good objectives and have a positive frame of mind.”

Michael Conway
Managing Director, FM Conway

“What a fantastic help. The programme has been very helpful in giving clear focus to future development plans and tactics for leadership that will be used throughout the department. If this is expanded throughout the organisation, there will be a significant improvement in leadership.”

John Jackson
Head of Building Control, The Royal Borough of Kensington & Chelsea

“I have most enjoyed having the opportunity to balance out my own viewpoint with another industry professional and also to tap into Robin’s objective wealth of knowledge and expertise. A very high standard of preparation and delivery.”

Colin McCadden
