

Coaching Programmes for Executive Level

Aim Higher Coaching

The Aim Higher coaching programme is proven to create inspiring leaders that will help improve performance leading to increased efficiency. The programme will look at key strategic leadership skills, People management, political dynamics, situational leadership etc.

Executive leaders form the key to your organisational future. To keep them engaged in your organisation it is important to invest in them appropriately, and also keep them developing.

Coaching has been proven to create more effective leaders more quickly, ensuring business is ready for the challenges that it will undoubtedly face, this coaching is designed to increase strategic resilience. Coached executives deliver higher performance than those without them, they are also more ready for change as it happens.

Aim Higher is the only top level executive coaching programme your senior team will need, tailored to meet the objectives of any organisation, anywhere in the world. The most experienced and qualified coaches are used for these types of programme.

The coaching programmes are delivered in six session groups. Sessions will last two hours and will all be face-to-face. Programmes can last up to 12 months. Telephone calls and additional support between coaching will also take place.

To ensure the coaching programme achieves its objectives an end of coaching strategic outcomes report is generated covering organisation and personal objectives.

This programme will leave your executives challenged with the capability and resilience to cope with the changes and challenges that they will face in a fast moving modern organisation.

Who's it for

This service is designed for all members of your senior management team.

How does it work

